Resource Consent Planner/ Project Manager Whangarei

Cato Bolam is a leading professional consultancy providing start-to-end solutions for housing, land development, subdivision and infrastructure projects. Our company purpose is "Creating Great Places" and that is what we strive to achieve – for our clients, our communities, and our environment.

The Opportunity

We are looking for a dynamic planner or highly skilled project manager to lead the planning services provided from our Whangarei office. If you are skilled in land development and want to progress your planning career up to a senior level in a consultancy that is truly focused on better land development solutions this is the job for you.

Our Northland offices are in Whangarei Town Centre. From there you will be our lead planner in project managing planning inputs for some of Northlands most significant projects. The position covers a range of resource consents work, with a particular focus on residential land development and medium density-built development of all scales. Depending on your interests and skills there is also the opportunity to be involved in planning policy and plan change projects and giving evidence at hearings.

About Us

Cato Bolam is a well-established consultancy with highly qualified staff, state of the art technologies and procedures, and a great team working environment.

Our team of 90+ staff is located across four offices in Auckland and Northland and has a proud reputation for delivering high quality services and outcomes.

Make a difference.

Together we will design and deliver a better future.

We'll help you grow.

We will invest in your future together.
